

Time Allowed: 45 mins.

Questions 1 to 5 of 1 mark

Maximum Marks: 20

Q-1 In Singular sense, Statistics means:

- a) Statistical science                      B) Statistical Law                      c) Both A & B                      d) None

Q-2 Which of the following statement is incorrect?

- a) Resources have alternative use
b) All numbers are statistics
c) Macroeconomics studies large number
d) Statistics studies only the aggregates of quantitative facts

Q-3 The data collected without any objective is called numbers. True/false?

Q-4 _____ statistics refers to those methods which are used for the collection of data.

Q-5 All numerical information is Statistics. True of false?

Q-6 Explain Statistics as Plural sense. (4)

Q-7 Explain any five Limitations of Statistics. (5)

Q-8 List four examples of data which all are Statistics, and data which are not statistics. (4)

Q-9 What is the subject matter of Statistics? (3)

Q-10 What do you mean by statistics as a Singular Noun. (4)